CERTIFICATION

TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENCE MAY COME, GREETINGS:

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that I.B.M. Code 007; 9-213; 20072858 C.T.; II-228; II-220 (Sequence Republic Act No. 1405) is the true and rightful legal owner, stockholder and signatory of movable and immovable properties, natural resources and other belongings covered and embraced under TITULO DE PROPIEDAD NO. 4136, otherwise known as Don Mariano San Pedro y Esteban Estate, composed of seven thousand one hundred seven (7,107) Islands – the Philippines, acquired and registered by virtue of the provisions of Article 34 of Act 496, otherwise known as The Spanish Mortgage Law or Land Registration Act.

IT IS CERTIFIED FURTHER that, on the case docketed as Special Proceedings No. 312-B, Titulo de Propiedad No. 4136 evidences the integration of registration of Don Mariano San Pedro y Esteban's three (3) registrable PRIVATE LAND GRANTS OF TITLE integrated together for registration under Act 496 otherwise known as the Spanish Mortgage Law or Land Registration Act, embodied, recognized and protected under Article VIII and Article IX of the TREATY OF PARIS of December 10, 1898, ratified as International Law on April 11, 1899. Based on the records gathered by this Honorable Court, the boundary of the Estate covers the entire geographical location of the Philippines as described in Republic Act No. 5446, as amended.

Moreover, Republic Act No. 386, otherwise known as the Civil Code of the Philippines, stated that:

"The owner of a parcel of land is the owner of its surface and of everything under it, xxx (Art. 437); Hidden treasure belongs to the owner of the land, building, or other property on which it is found. Nevertheless, when the discovery is made on the property of another, or of the State or any of its subdivisions, and by chance, one-half thereof shall be allowed to the finder. If the finder is a trespasser, he shall not be entitled to any share of the treasure. xxx (Art. 438); and, by treasure is understood, for legal purposes, any hidden and unknown deposit of money, jewelry, or other precious objects, the lawful ownership of which does not appear. (Art. 439)" .

Furthermore, in consideration of the above-cited provisions of the law and other applicable laws governing monetury, this Honorable Court found out, beyond reasonable doubt, that the owner of all movable properties, such as cash deposits and other precious metals deposits deposited in various banks, local and foreign, are belong to the Estate of the late Don Mariano San Pedro y Esteban as the legal and lawful sources of its origin. Thus, former President Ferdinand E. Marcos subscribed and sworn an oath that his powers and authority vested by the Constitution organized under Proclamation No. 1081 is only covered by Management of Temporalities with State Nations Globe World by the Sovereign Authority of the Legislative, Executive and Judiciary Operation No. 767 under Republic Act No. 5446 of the National, International, Global Offices and Titular No. 01-02274 UN-P.I. under the auspices of H-World United Nations Military Philippine Government, Far East Orient, Philippines.

This certification is issued pursuant to Article X, Section 1 of 1973 Constitution and Article VIII, Section 15 of 1987 Constitution, and in accordance with the International Covenant
